The Unstoppable Revolutionary: Chandra Shekhar Azad

"Dushman ki goliyon ka hum samna karenge, Azad hi rahe hain, Azad hi rahenge!"
— Chandra Shekhar Azad

📖 Short Story: The Boy Who Named Himself "Free"

When young Chandra Shekhar Tiwari was just 15 years old, he joined the freedom movement. During a protest, he was arrested and brought before a magistrate judge.

The strict judge asked him, "What is your name?" The boy raised his head high and answered proudly, "Azad" (which means Free)! When asked his father's name, he replied, "Swatantrata" (Freedom), and for his address, he boldly declared, "Jail!"

From that day on, everyone called him Chandra Shekhar Azad. He grew up to become a legendary leader who mentored young revolutionaries like Bhagat Singh. Azad took a vow that the British police would never capture him alive—a promise he kept till his very last breath at Alfred Park in Allahabad!

🌟 Quick Fun Facts About Azad:

- The Name "Azad": He earned the title Azad at age 15 after showing supreme courage in court.
- Master of Disguise: He was an expert at changing his looks and slipping past guards undetected!
- Alfred Park: The famous park in Prayagraj where he fought bravely is now named Chandrashekhar Azad Park in his honor.

🛡️ Pledge of Determination Challenge

Azad was famous for making a strong promise to himself and never giving up. Write down 1 good habit promise you want to keep no matter what:

My Personal Promise: _____